Have you a "silent" musical instrument in your home? Unless it's anchored there by sentiment, let a "for sale" ad in the Bonanza find a buyer for it.

If it's of exceptional value at the price, it's sure to be advertised in the Bonanza, else the merchant would be hopelessly unprogressive.

WELLS FARGO
WAGONS ARE MADE
PRIVATE FACTORYEXPRESS COMPANY MAINTAINS DISTINCTIVENESS IN ALL
VEHICLES

Many have commented on the style and workmanship of the wagons used by the Wells Fargo in delivering their express in Tonopah and other cities but few know that there is a story behind the building of these wagons.

There is a reason for this and one which goes back to the time the Wells Fargo Company first began to assume large proportions as a carrier of valuable matter throughout the United States.

When this business became so large that the company wished to place its own wagons on the streets of the large cities its president called in a man named Campbell in Chicago, who was noted for his ability to design and build wagons. He was asked to make a suitable design for the Wells Fargo Express company, one that would be distinctive from other rigs in use at that time.

Mr. Campbell was an old man and without means. He told the representative of the company that he could not build the wagons as he had no funds with which to purchase needed material. Thereupon the Wells Fargo company furnished the money and saw that Campbell was fitted out with one of the finest wagon shops in Chicago.

That was the beginning of one of the largest wagon factories today, the same establishment still being operated with the start given Mr.
Campbell by the express company, which desired his ideas in the construction of its delivery wagons.

This Girl Recovered
From Consumption

The makers of Eckman's Alternative, which is doing so much good for Con-sumptives, are continually in receipt of wonderful reports of recoveries brought about solely through the use of this medicine. These reports are always at the command of any one interested, and many of the writers in their gratitude have suggested that like sufferers write direct and learn what it did for them.
Here is one specimen:

121 Second Ave., Aurora, Ill.
"Gentlemen: Pardon me for not writing sooner, but I wanted to see if I would stay cured. I can now truthfully say I am perfectly well.
I wish to express my heartfelt thanks. I have no pain, no cough, no night sweats, no hay fever. Since a child of two years, I have been ailing with lung trouble, which grew worse as I grew older. At the age of fourteen, the doctor said if I could not be sent South I would surely die of Consumption. Every winter I would be sure to have either Bronchitis, Pleurisy or Pneumonia one time. I had catarrh of the stomach and bowels and had Hay Fever for the last few years; but have not anything of the kind this year.
"I will answer all letters sent to me, asking a history of my case, from any one suffering with lung trouble." (Sworn Affidavit)

ETTA PLATH Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles and in the upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by leading druggists.
Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

Don't you think that the store that's paying for publicity in the Bonanza, is apt to have a reason for wanting it—just as the store that is not advertised may have reasons for avoiding publicity?

DICK KOTELMAN
FRACTURES RIBS
BY BAD FALLSTEPS INTO OLD FLUME AND MEETS WITH SERIOUS AND PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Dick Kotelman, one of the Tonopah pioneers, now residing at Dayton, met with an accident several days ago that necessitated securing medical treatment at Reno. The Gazette has the following to say concerning the accident.

"Back" Coleman, as he is familiarly known, but whose real name is P. B. Kotelman, finds that his all luck is still pursuing him. His latest misfortune is to have three ribs snapped off near the spinal column.
Mr. and Mrs. Coleman were walking near their home at Dayton when Mr.
C. stumbled into an old flume in the darkness. They will make Reno their home until the damage is passed.

The man who ought to own it will come around and look over your property soon after you commence to advertise in the Bonanza.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5223 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.
"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had a cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages. At one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened, until entirely gone. I am perfectly well.
Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."
(Sworn Affidavit)
